

RESOLUTION NO. ____ - 2021

RESOLVED, that this Board hold a public hearing pursuant to Section 209.141(4) of the Laws of Westchester County on Local Law Intro. No. ____ - 2021, entitled "A LOCAL LAW amending the Laws of Westchester with respect to the advancement of ethics within all levels of county government." The public hearing will be held at __.m. on the ____ day of _____, 2021 in the Chambers of the Board of Legislators, 8th Floor, Michaelian Office Building, White Plains, New York. The Clerk of the Board shall cause notice of the time and date of such hearing to be published at least once in one or more newspapers published in the County of Westchester and selected by the Clerk of the Board for that purpose in the manner and time required by law.

TO: HONORABLE BOARD OF LEGISLATORS
COUNTY OF WESTCHESTER

Your Committee has reviewed "A LOCAL LAW amending the Laws of Westchester with respect to the advancement of ethics within all levels of county government."

Your Committee notes that Article 18 of the General Municipal Law prohibits the officers and employees of a County from having certain conflicts of interest, and Section 806 of the General Municipal Law requires the governing body of each county to adopt a code of ethics that sets forth standards of conduct expected of its officers and employees. The code of ethics adopted by this Board must set forth standards of conduct for the guidance of the officers and employees of the county with respect to disclosure of interests in legislation before the local governing body, holding of investments in conflict with official duties, private employment in conflict with official duties, future employment, and such other standards as may be deemed advisable.

Your Committee, having reviewed Chapters 192 and 883 of the Laws of Westchester County, which, respectively, create the Board of Ethics and contain the County's Code of Ethics, and having conferred with the Westchester County Board of Ethics, believes that it is appropriate at this time to repeal and replace Chapters 192 and 883 with this new Code, which sets forth a clear and comprehensive code of ethics in order to ensure both the reality and the appearance of integrity in County government, and to thereby foster public confidence in County government.

As you know, this Honorable Board must comply with the requirements of the State Environmental Quality Review Act ("SEQRA"). Your Committee is advised that the Department of Planning has reviewed the applicable SEQRA regulations, and has concluded that this proposed Local Law is not an action. Your Committee concurs with that conclusion.

Your Committee, after careful consideration, recommends the adoption of this Local Law.

BE IT ENACTED by the County Board of the County of Westchester as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 192 and Chapter 883 of the Laws of Westchester County are hereby repealed.

Section 2. A new Chapter 883 is hereby added to the Laws of Westchester County to read as follows:

CHAPTER 883 CODE OF ETHICS

ARTICLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section	883.101	Purpose
	883.102	Definitions
	883.103	Applicability

Section 883.101. Purpose. Officers and employees of the County hold their positions to serve and benefit the public; not to obtain unwarranted personal or private gain in the exercise and performance of their official powers and duties. The County recognizes that, in furtherance of this fundamental principle, there is a need for clear and reasonable standards of ethical conduct. This Code of Ethics establishes those standards.

Section 883.102. Definitions.

- a. “Interest” means a direct or indirect financial or material benefit, but does not include any benefit arising from the provision or receipt of any services generally available to the residents or taxpayers of the County or an area of the County, or a lawful class of such residents or taxpayers. A County officer or employee is deemed to have an interest in any private organization when he or she, his or her spouse, or dependent, is an owner, partner, member, director, officer, employee, or directly or indirectly owns or controls more than 5% of the organization's equity or debt, whether in the form of outstanding stock or otherwise.

b. "Relative" means a spouse, registered domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, sibling or stepsibling of a County officer or employee.

Section 883.103, Applicability.

a. This Code of Ethics applies to all officers and employees of the County, whether paid or unpaid, including the members of any County department, agency, board or commission and the members and employees of the County Legislature.

b. Section 883.207 (Future Employment) of this Code of Ethics applies to current and former officers and employees of the County.

c. Section 883.208 (Independent Contractors) of this Code of Ethics applies to independent contractors of the County.

d. Section 883.209 (Personal Representations and Claims Permitted), Section 883.215 (Inducement of Others) and Section 883.402 (Powers and Duties of Board of Ethics) of this Code of Ethics apply to officers and employees of the County and independent contractors of the County.

e. Section 883.303 (Applicant Disclosure in Land Use Applications) of this Code of Ethics applies to applicants, petitioners or parties requesting approval of a zoning referral, plat, exemption from a plat or official map, license or permit, pursuant to any local law, rule or regulation constituting the planning and land use regulations of the County.

f. The provisions of this Code of Ethics shall supplement all applicable State and local laws relating to conflicts of interest and municipal ethics including, but not limited to, Article 18 of the General Municipal Law and all related rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the County.

g. The termination of an officer's or employee's term of office or employment with the County shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Board of Ethics with respect to the requirements imposed by this Code of Ethics on the former officer or employee for his or her actions or interests while a County officer or employee, nor with respect to the post-employment restrictions imposed by this Code of Ethics.

(1) The designation of a bank or trust company as a depository, paying agent, registration agent or for investment of County funds except when the chief fiscal officer, or his deputy or employee, has an interest in such bank or trust company; provided, however, that where designation of a bank or trust company outside the County would be required because of the foregoing restriction, a bank or trust company within the County may nevertheless be so designated;

(2) A contract with a person, firm, corporation or association in which a County officer or employee has an interest which is prohibited solely by reason of his or her status as an officer or employee thereof, if the compensation from such employment will not be directly affected as a result of the contract and the duties of such employment do not directly involve the procurement, preparation or performance of any part of the contract;

- (3) The designation of a newspaper, including but not limited to an official newspaper, for the publication of any notice, resolution, act or other proceeding where such publication is required or authorized by law;

(12) A contract for the payment of a portion of the compensation of a private employee of an officer when such employee performs part time service in the official duties of the office;

(13) A contract in which a County officer or employee has an interest if the total consideration payable thereunder, when added to the aggregate amount of all consideration payable under contracts in which such person had an interest during the fiscal year, does not exceed the sum of seven hundred fifty dollars; or

(14) A contract with a member of a private industry council established in accordance with the federal job training partnership act or any firm, corporation or association in which such member holds an interest, provided the member discloses such interest to the council and the member does not vote on the contract.

a. No County officer or employee shall participate in any decision or take any official action requiring the exercise of discretion, including discussing, deliberating or voting on a matter, when he or she knows or has reason to know that the action may confer a direct or indirect financial or other material benefit on a person or entity specified in Section 883.201 of this Chapter.

b. Contribution of money or other valuable thing permitted under Section 833.214(d) of this Chapter shall not be a disqualifying benefit for purposes of this section and does not require recusal hereunder, except that members of the Board of Ethics shall recuse themselves to the extent required by Section 883.401(b) of this Chapter.

Section 883.204. Prohibition Inapplicable; Recusal and Disclosure Not Required.

a. The requirements relating to recusal set forth in Section 883.203 of this Code of Ethics, and the disclosure requirements set forth in Article III Disclosures of this Code of Ethics, shall not apply with respect to the following matters:

b. The preceding sub-section shall not prohibit a County officer or employee from acquiring or maintaining the following:

- (3) Bonds or notes issued by the County and acquired more than one year after the date on which the bonds or notes were originally issued.

c. - c. No County officer or employee, during his or her tenure as a County officer or employee, shall engage in any secondary employment, or engage in any business, commercial, or professional activity, when the secondary employment or business, commercial or professional activity:

power to appoint any member, officer or employee;

(5) Pursuant to which the officer or employee will receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, to receive compensation for services to be rendered in connection with any matter before any County department, agency, board or commission, whereby his compensation is to be dependent or contingent upon any action by such department, agency, board or commission with respect to such matter, provided that this paragraph shall not prohibit the fixing at any time of fees based upon the reasonable value of the services rendered; or

(6) Involves the representation of a person or organization other than the County, or pursuant to which the officer or employee will receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, to receive compensation for services rendered in connection with any application, request, claim or proposal before any County department, agency, board or commission, or any litigation, negotiations or matter requiring the exercise of discretion to which the County is a party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a person serving the County or any agency thereof without compensation shall not be subject to the prohibitions set forth in this subsection (c)(6).

d. No elected County officer shall otherwise be employed by the County or hold any other elected office.

Section 883.207. Future Employment.

a. No County officer or employee shall seek, negotiate, pursue or accept a private post-government employment opportunity with any person or organization that has a matter requiring the exercise of discretion pending before the County officer or employee, either individually or as a member of a board or commission, while the matter is pending or within the 90 days following final disposition of the matter.

- b. No County officer or employee, for a one-year period after serving as a County officer or employee, shall appear before or communicate in any form with the County office, board, department or comparable organizational unit for which he or she served in connection with any case, proceeding, application or other proposed or pending matter, except (i) on behalf of the Federal Government, the State or a political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, or (ii) pursuant to a waiver granted or deemed to be granted in accordance with the procedures set forth at Section 883.402(g).
- c. No County officer or employee, at any time after serving as a County officer or employee, shall represent or render services to a private person or organization in connection with any particular matter in which he or she personally and substantially participated while serving as a County officer or employee, except (i) on behalf of the Federal Government, the State or a political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, or (ii) pursuant to a waiver granted or deemed to be granted in accordance with the procedures set forth at Section 883.402(g).

Section 883.208. Independent Contractors. No independent contractor or employee of an independent contractor of the County shall exert undue influence on behalf of a private interest, directly or indirectly, in a matter before any County department, agency, board or commission. A violation of this Section shall be grounds for termination of the independent contractor's contract with the County and shall be grounds for holding that contractor not responsible for purposes of entering into future contracts, subject to applicable requirements of New York State law.

Section 883.209. Personal Representations and Claims Permitted.

This Code of Ethics shall not be construed as prohibiting a County officer or employee or an independent contractor of the County from:

- a. Seeking or accepting County services, benefits, or the use of County facilities, on the same terms and conditions as are available to County residents or a class of similarly situated County residents.
- b. Asserting a claim against the County on his or her own behalf, or on behalf of a relative or member of his or her household, unless the claim is prohibited by Section 883.202 of this Code of Ethics, or by Section 801 of the New York General Municipal Law.

Section 883.210. Use of County Resources.

- a. County resources shall be used only for lawful County purposes. County resources include, but are not limited to, County personnel, compensated time, money, vehicles, equipment, data and telecommunication systems, letterhead, materials, supplies, or other property.
- b. No County officer or employee shall use or permit the use of County resources for personal or private purposes, but this provision shall not be construed as prohibiting:
 - (1) Any use of County resources authorized by law, County policy or collective bargaining agreement to which the County is a party;
 - (2) The use of County resources for personal or private purposes when provided to a County officer or employee as part of his or her compensation; or
 - (3) The occasional and incidental use of County resources for reasonably necessary personal, non-business matters.
- c. No County officer or employee shall cause the County to spend more than is reasonably necessary for transportation, meals or lodging in connection with official travel. Transportation, meal, and lodging expenses shall be presumptively reasonable if they are in accordance with the County's travel policy and/or the applicable provisions of any collective bargaining agreement.

Section 883.211. Nepotism.

Except as otherwise required by law:

- a. No County officer or employee, either individually or as a member of a County board or commission, shall participate in any decision to appoint, hire or promote a relative or a member of his or her household to a position of county employment compensated at a rate of seven thousand, five hundred dollars ($7,500) or more per annum.
- b. No County officer or employee, either individually or as a member of a County board or commission, shall participate in any decision to discipline or discharge a relative or a member of his or her household employed by the county and compensated at a rate of seven thousand, five hundred dollars ($7,500) or more per annum.
- c. No County officer or employee shall directly supervise the performance of the official duties of a relative or member of his or her household employed by the county and compensated at a rate of seven thousand, five hundred dollars ($7,500) or more per annum.

Section 883.212. Political Solicitations.

- a. No County officer or employee shall directly or indirectly use his or her authority or official influence to compel or induce a subordinate County officer or employee to make, or promise to make, any political contribution, whether by gift of money, service or other thing of value.
- b. No County officer or employee shall act or decline to act in relation to appointing, hiring or promoting, discharging, disciplining, or in any manner changing the official rank, status or compensation of any County officer or employee, or an applicant for a position as a County officer or employee, on the basis of the giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or service or any other valuable thing for any political purpose.

Section 883.213. Confidential Information.

- a. No current or former County officer or employee, including County Legislators or employees of the County Legislature, any of its caucuses or individual County Legislators, shall disclose confidential information concerning the property, government or affairs of the County or any other confidential information of an official character obtained as a result of County employment except when disclosure is required by law or when such information is otherwise available to the public, nor shall he or she use such information to advance the financial or other private interest of himself or herself or others.
- b. Confidential information is information in any format that is either prohibited from disclosure to the public by federal or state law, or is withheld from public disclosure in the lawful exercise of the discretion afforded to the authorized information officer by federal or state law.

Section 883.214. Gifts, Tips and other Benefits.

- a. No County officer or employee shall solicit, accept or agree to accept any gift, tip or other benefit for having engaged in official conduct which he or she was required or authorized to perform, and for which he or she was not entitled to any special or additional compensation.
- b. No County officer or employee shall accept or receive any gift or other benefit, or multiple gifts or other benefits from the same donor in a twelve month period, having an aggregate value of seventy-five dollars or more when:
 - (1) the gift or other benefit would reasonably appear to be intended to influence the officer or employee in the exercise or performance of his or her official duties;

- (2) the gift or other benefit would reasonably be expected to influence the officer or employee in the exercise or performance of his or her official duties; or
- (3) the gift or other benefit would reasonably appear to be intended as a reward for any official action on the part of the officer or employee.
- c. For purposes of this Section, the terms "gift", "tip" and "other benefit" include anything of value, whether in the form of money, service, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or in any other form. The value of a gift, tip or other benefit is its fair market value, determined by the retail cost of the item or a comparable item. The fair market value of a ticket entitling the holder to food, refreshments, entertainment, or any other benefit is the face value of the ticket, or the actual cost to the donor, whichever is greater.
- d. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section shall not prohibit:
- (1) Gifts made to the County;
 - (2) Gifts from a person with a family or personal relationship with the officer or employee when it is reasonable to conclude that the personal relationship, rather than the recipient's status as a County officer or employee, is the primary motivating factor for the gift;
 - (3) Gifts given on non-recurring special occasions, such as marriage, illness, or retirement, which are reasonable and customary;
 - (4) Unsolicited advertising or promotional material of little intrinsic value, such as pens, pencils, note pads, and calendars;

(7) Gifts or benefits having a value of one hundred ($100.00) dollars or less that are received by a County officer or employee serving in a capacity listed in Section 11 of the Domestic Relations Law for the solemnization of a marriage by the officer or employee at a place other than his or her normal public place of business or at a time other than his or her normal hours of business.

(8) Contributions made in accordance with federal or state election law.

Section 883.215. Inducement of Others. No County officer, employee or independent contractor shall induce or attempt to induce a County officer, employee or independent contractor to violate, nor aid a County officer, employee or independent contractor in violating, any of the provisions of this Code of Ethics.

Section 883.216. Criminal Convictions.

- a. No person convicted of a crime involving a violation of his or her oath of office, whether a felony or misdemeanor, shall hold County elective office unless such conviction shall have been reversed, vacated or expunged, or said person has obtained a certificate of relief from civil disabilities.
- b. No appointed officer of the County shall continue in service after having been convicted of a felony, or a misdemeanor involving a violation of his or her oath of office, except as provided herein.
- c. No employee of the County shall continue in service after having been convicted of a crime that is directly related to the employment held by the individual, or that would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public, as determined by the appointing authority upon consideration of the factors set forth in N.Y. Corrections Law §753.

d. No independent contractor of the County shall continue in service after having been convicted of a crime that is directly related to the County engagement, or that would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public, as determined by the appointing authority upon consideration of the factors set forth in N.Y. Corrections Law §753.

e. A former employee of the County convicted of a crime that is directly related to the employment held by the individual, or that would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public shall be eligible for reinstatement if such conviction shall have been reversed, vacated or expunged, or upon consideration of the factors set forth in N.Y. Corrections Law §753.

f. A former independent contractor of the County convicted of a crime that is directly related to the employment held by the individual, or that would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public shall, in the discretion of the appointing authority, be eligible for reinstatement if such conviction shall have been reversed, vacated or expunged, or upon receipt of a certificate of relief from civil disabilities.
