A capital budget amendment in the amount of $1,000,000 (shown under review), is being requested to provide funding for the new Pilot Safety Net Mental Health Clinic at 112 East Post Road, White Plains. The County Executive and Legislature are invested in the County providing mental health services due to the growing need for outpatient services. Over the years, as part of our County Plans, there has been growing concern regarding timely access and capacity for outpatient clinic services.
