Lucille Rossi
BIO

I am actively involved in the disability community, as a parent of an adult child (now 20 years old) with an intellectual disability.

Here are some of the activities with which I have been involved:

- Member of the town of New Castle's EPIC (Every Person is Connected) Committee (<http://www.mynewcastle.org/283/Every-Person-is-Connected-Committee-EPIC>)
- Chappaqua's Special Education PTA Committee – Chairperson for Horace Greeley High School, since 2012
- Chappaqua School District Special Education Advisory Committee member
- Graduate of NYS Partners in Policymaking program, class of 2018
- Family Supports and Services (FSS) Advisory Council Member at the OPWDD office in Tarrytown
- Contracted by WIHD's Community Support Network as a project manager, since 2013
- Contracted by the NY Alliance for Inclusion and Innovation's NY Housing Resource Center (www.NYhrc.org)

My professional background includes a 30-year career in financial services, process redesign, and project management. I attended Wellesley College, and received my MBA from NYU's Stern School.

I have extensive training in, and knowledge of, the disability landscape. I am experienced from both a policy perspective and as a user of these services
