Dear Dr. Stenerson,

It is my pleasure to appoint you to serve as a member of the Westchester County LGBTQ Advisory Board, effective today, Friday, November 13, 2020, pursuant to the Laws of Westchester County §277.1001. This appointment is for a term to expire on December 31, 2024.

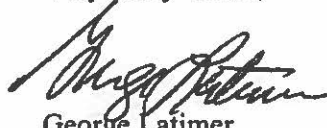

Your appointment is subject to confirmation by the Westchester County Board of Legislators, but your service begins immediately. You must complete the attached Oath of Office and file it with the County Clerk prior to the next LGBTQ Advisory Board meeting, and provide this office with a copy within 30 days. Please contact Steve Bass of my office at (914) 995-2914 for the date, place, and time of the LGBTQ Advisory Board's upcoming meeting for your participation.

When you have filed your Oath of Office, a Resolution to confirm your appointment will be submitted to the County Board of Legislators. As part of the confirmation process, you may be called before the Board to be interviewed.

Pursuant to Local Law, as a member of a Westchester County Board and/or Commission, you are responsible for adhering to the requirements of our Code of Ethics, which includes the annual filing of a financial disclosure statement with the County Board of Ethics. A financial disclosure form is attached.

Warmest wishes for a successful tenure.

Very Truly Yours,

George Latimer

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Pace University

Executive Director
The Faculty Center for Innovative Pedagogy and Professional Development
2015 to January 2020 (retired)

Recognizing that technology is a standard tool for faculty in their teaching it was decided to change the focus of CTLT (Center for Teaching Learning and Technology- see below) and fold in the Faculty Development Center into one Center dedicated to effective and dynamic teaching. It was also recognized that faculty in all stages of their career, need professional development especially developing leadership roles in higher education. The Faculty Center serves as a university-wide support system for all faculty and supports both traditional and non-traditional instruction.

Responsibilities:

- Manage a team of full-time and part-time staff who work with faculty and share current knowledge trends
- Recommend, implement and administer innovative faculty workshops
- Advise the Provost and Associate Provost regarding distributed education issues, new pedagogical tools, innovative faculty development offerings, professional development issues for senior and junior faculty.
- Act as the Liaison Officer for the Faculty Resource Network a faculty development consortium of colleges housed at New York University
- Coordinate efforts to develop and administer assessment instruments for various faculty development workshops
- Develop, maintain and administer a realistic master assessment plan for the Center that integrates with the University's Strategic Plan

Founding Executive Director
Center for Teaching, Learning and Technology
Pforzheimer Center for Faculty Development
1999 to 2015

The Center for Teaching, Learning and Technology (CTLT) served as a central resource for faculty development. The Center maintained a strategic and operational partnership with the Pforzheimer Center for Faculty Development. The Center sponsors and facilitates various programs that offer faculty opportunities to create a positive and active learning environment fostering students' intellectual growth and critical analysis.

- Team member for Middle States Association's reaccreditation of University of Rochester. Team visit end of April, 2014.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Associate Professor
Dyson College of Arts and Science
Pleasantville Campus
(1980 – current)

INSTRUCTIONAL INITIATIVES

- Developed and taught a graduate course on Effective Web Design for the Masters in Communication Arts program (MCA 620—Spring 2010 - Present)
- Developed and taught for the Pleasantville campus a Queer Cultures course (WS 169) (Fall 2008 - present)
- Proposed, co-developed and co-taught a totally asynchronous public speaking course (Communications 200). This course was offered online incorporating different video platforms (Summer 2008).
- Proposed, implemented and taught the first for credit asynchronous course – Communications 296B Technology as a Theme in Films (Spring 1997).
- Created and incorporated extensive Web pages and Internet resources for coursework and syllabus into the American Literature I and II curriculum (Fall 1996).
- Incorporated writing software into the English Writing Courses I and II.
- Proposed and taught Sociology 296 Society and Technology. This course explored the philosophical aspects of technology and the impact it has on human development and social constructs.

Principal Investigator

Verizon Foundation Grant

“The Verizon Thinkfinity, Technology & Community Initiative at Pace University” 2007 – 2014

- Seven year – $3.5 million grant awarded to Pace University July 2007
- Goal of the grant is to serve as a national model by showcasing innovative and creative applications of technology in all disciplines
- Three cornerstones of the grant:
 - Cornerstone I: Expansion of and training with the Thinkfinity Platform
The initiative will expand and enhance the understanding, use and importance of the Thinkfinity platform as an instructional resource for K-12 schools. Pace will be responsible for teacher-training in various K-12 schools.
 - Cornerstone II: Community Outreach and Empowerment through Service Learning and Volunteerism
The initiative will enrich the quality of life of community members in computer literacy and skills through civic engagement and address the digital divide by reaching out to seniors, women, and underrepresented minorities and at risk communities.
 - Cornerstone III: Multidisciplinary Informatics
The initiative advances the responsible practice of computing and the application of information technology into many critical disciplines. “Multidisciplinary informatics” will allow the integration of computing and technology tools into the teaching and learning of various fields (science, the arts, business, health care, law).

Mr. Stuart Cotton
10 The Crossing at Blind Brook
Purchase, NY 10577

Dear Mr. Cotton,

It is my pleasure to reappoint you to serve as a member of the Westchester County Board of Ethics, pursuant to the Laws of Westchester County §192.11. This reappointment is for a term to commence on January 1, 2021 and expire on December 31, 2023.

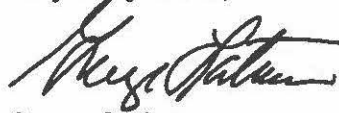

Your reappointment is subject to confirmation by the Westchester County Board of Legislators, but your service begins immediately. You must complete the attached Oath of Office and file it with the County Clerk prior to the next Board of Ethics meeting, and provide this office with a copy within 30 days. Please contact the Westchester County Attorney's Office at (914) 995-6344 for the date, place, and time of the upcoming Board of Ethics meeting for your participation.

When you have filed your Oath of Office, a Resolution to confirm your appointment will be submitted to the County Board of Legislators. As part of the confirmation process, you may be called before the Board to be interviewed.

Pursuant to Local Law, as a member of a Westchester County Board and/or Commission, you are responsible for adhering to the requirements of our Code of Ethics, which includes the annual filing of a financial disclosure statement with the County Board of Ethics.

Warmest wishes for a successful tenure.

Very Truly Yours,

George Latimer
Westchester County Executive
