Mr. Eduardo R. C. Capulong
141 James Street
Hastings-On-Hudson, NY 10706

Dear Mr. Capulong,

It is my pleasure to appoint you to serve as a member of the Westchester County Asian American Advisory Board effective today, Friday, May 5, 2023. This appointment is for a term to expire on December 31, 2024.

Your appointment is subject to confirmation by the Westchester County Board of Legislators, but your service begins immediately. You must complete the attached Oath of Office within 30 days, either by appearing at the County Clerk's office or mailing the signed and notarized form to our office.

When you have filed your Oath of Office, a Resolution to confirm your appointment will be submitted to the County Board of Legislators. As part of the confirmation process, you may be called before the Board to be interviewed. Please contact Martha Lopez at (914) 995-2947 for the date, place, and time of the board's upcoming meeting for your participation.

Pursuant to Local Law, as a member of a Westchester County Board and/or Commission, you are responsible for adhering to the requirements of our Code of Ethics.

Warmest wishes for a successful tenure.

Very Truly Yours,

George Latimer
Westchester County Executive

Eduardo R.C. Capulong '91 is a Professor of Law. Prior to joining the Law faculty, as its Director of the Lawyering Program, he was a Professor of Law and inaugural Associate Dean for Clinical and Experiential Education at the University of Montana, where he taught Lawyering, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Race, Racism, and American Law, and Law and Social Justice. Professor Capulong was also a visiting scholar at the Universidad de Chile, Facultad de Derecho, where he helped launch the law school's first clinical course; lawyering professor at New York University; and public interest policy, and externship programs director and lecturer at Stanford Law School, where he taught public interest lawyering and community organizing. He received his undergraduate degree in political science and journalism from NYU and a law degree from CUNY as a Patricia Roberts Harris and D. Putter Fellow.

Prior to teaching, Professor Capulong worked as a litigator, policy analyst, and community organizer for various nonprofits, including the Northern Manhattan Coalition for Immigrant Rights, Community Service Society, Center for Constitutional Rights, Committee Against Anti-Asian Violence, and CUNY Staff and Workers' Association. He was the former Karpotkin Fellow at the American Civil Liberties Union and Pro Se Law Clerk at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Professor Capulong is a past co-chair of the American Association of Law Schools Section on Clinical Legal Education. He has also served on the boards of the Montana ACLU, Society of American Law Teachers, National Law Guild (San Francisco), International Endowment for Democracy, Center for Juvenile and Criminal Justice, and Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund.

Experiential Education and the Future of Legal Curriculum

Eduardo Capulong writes in The Best Practices in Legal Education Blog: "The law school is a key pillar of the American establishment. The durability of how things are done. The formalist cast has endured is that it has racial capitalism exceptionally well: it abstracts, objectifies, normalizes, and obscures raw, [...]

Christopher Columbus Langdell, Black Lives Matter and Legal Education

Eduardo Capulong writes in Jurist: "Our own reckoning will succeed only if we teach law and lawyering as antiracist practice—as abolition and reparations as much as anti-Black violence, segregation and carceralism; as Native resistance as much as settler colonialism, as multiracial labor solidarity as much as racial capitalism; as self-determination as much as imperialism."

Antiracism, Reflection, and Professional Identity

In his co-authored article "Antiracism, Reflection, and Professional Identity" for the Hastings Race and Poverty Law Journal, out in November, Professor Eduardo Capulong argues that while the professional identity formation movement values diversity and cross-cultural competence, it overlooks structural racism embedded in American Law and education and the need for the infusion of critical race [...]
