MINUTES APPROVAL

I. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

A presentation from the Westchester County Planning Department on their data dashboards

Guests:

Westchester County Planning Department

Blanca Lopez, Commissioner
Michael Lipkin, Associate Planner
Edward Leimbach, Associate Planner

Commissioner Lopez began by sharing information regarding the Planning Departments GIS planning dashboards. As an affiliate to the New York State Data Center. In doing so they assist with the collection and dissemination of economic, social and demographic data.

The rest of the meeting consisted of a presentation regarding the data on the data dashboards that inform everything in Westchester County from information related to the demographics of a population to, housing stock, population growth and more. Live demonstrations were given of the data dashboards on the Planning Departments website. The dashboards can be filtered by municipality, race, income and more. This information can be especially useful to help with organizations seeking grants and funding.
