Re: Request for authorization to settle the lawsuit of Lisa A. Robinson v. County of Westchester, et al, in Westchester County Supreme Court, Index No. 56667/2020, in the amount of $125,000.00 inclusive of attorney's fees.

Dear Honorable Members of the Board:

Attached for your consideration is an Act which, if enacted by your Board, would authorize the settlement of the lawsuit of Lisa A. Robinson v. County of Westchester, et al, in the amount of $125,000.00 inclusive of attorney's fees.

This matter is pending in the Westchester County Supreme Court. The Yankowitz Law Firm, P.C., 175 East Shore Road, Great Neck, New York 11023 is representing the plaintiff. Codefendant Kenneth O. Akarume is represented by Votto & Albee, PLLC, 30 Bay Street, 7th Floor, Staten Island, New York 10301. Patrick Butler, Esq., of Maroney O'Connor LLP, 11 Broadway, New York, New York 10004 is representing the County.

The matter tentatively settled on May 11, 2022 pending this Board's approval of a settlement in the amount of $125,000.00, inclusive of attorney's fees.

This matter arises out of a Liberty Lines Bus accident which occurred on August 29, 2018. Plaintiff was a passenger and was standing in front of and facing the back door while holding on to a railing with her left hand. The bus was traveling southbound on South Broadway in Yonkers. The accident happened when a car appeared to run the stop sign at the on-ramp to South Broadway from the Henry Hudson Parkway, and entered South Broadway at an angle from the right. This car was driven by codefendant Kenneth Akarume. The codefendant's car was struck by the bus on the driver's side door. Codefendant appeared to have been attempting to make a left turn in front of the bus.

Plaintiff was transported from the scene of the bus accident to St. Joseph's Hospital in Yonkers. She complained of pain in her left leg, knee and hip, and pain in her left shoulder. As a result of the bus accident, on January 31, 2019, plaintiff had arthroscopic surgery at Surgicore of Manhattan to repair a partial rotator cuff tear in her left shoulder.

On November 11, 2021, counsel filed a summary judgment liability motion under the "Emergency Doctrine Theory". The latter legal theory is that, "motorists faced with a sudden and unexpected circumstance not of their own making that leaves them with little or no time for reflection may not be negligent if their actions are reasonable and prudent in the context of the emergency".

On March 28, 2022, the court issued a decision denying our motion. The judge reviewed the bus's forward video as part of the summary judgment argument and felt there was a question of fact as to whether the bus had sufficient warning to stop and avoid the accident.

The codefendant purchased a minimal $25,000/$50,000 limit of liability insurance policy. Due to multiple motorists involved in the accident, New York State's joint and several liability rule will apply to the accident. Under this rule, if the plaintiff achieves just a 1% apportionment of liability against Liberty Lines, the County will be liable for any potential judgment in excess of the codefendant's $25,000 insurance policy limit. The codefendant has already tendered his $25,000 policy limit.

Plaintiff was receiving Medicaid benefits prior to the accident so there will be Medicaid liens imposed against the settlement to be paid by the County.

The accident was found by Liberty Lines to be non-preventable and the bus operator in question was not disciplined.

The settlement takes into consideration the uncertainty of litigation and the potential costs of trial, subsequent proceedings and potential appeal. Both outside counsel and our insurer's adjuster recommend this settlement. The County's insurance policy will cover $25,000 of the $125,000 settlement, and the County will pay its $100,000. deductible.

The accompanying Act will authorize settlement of the lawsuit entitled, Lisa A. Robinson v. County of Westchester, et al, in the amount of $125,000.00, Westchester County Supreme Court Index No. 56667/2020, inclusive of attorney's fees.

Very truly yours,

John M. Nonna
County Attorney
