To the Westchester County Airport Advisory Board:

Regretfully, I am writing you to inform you that I need to discontinue my service as a board member on the Westchester County Airport Advisory Board. It has been a pleasure serving with all of you for the past two years. The crucial work you are tasked to do requires a level of commitment that I am unable to provide at this time. Due to other obligations in my life, I am unable to serve in a manner consistent with the necessary attention to effectively serve in this role.

I wish this board, the communities around the airport, and all affected by the airport all the best moving forward.

Thank you for the important volunteer work in which you continue to engage.

Sincerely,

Wade Hardy
