I. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

Domestic violence training information

Guests:

Robin Schlaff, Director, Darlene Reda, Program Specialist, and Nancy Tunis, Program Administrator, Westchester County Office for Women

Chair Williams Johnson invited the guests to introduce themselves and begin the discussion on the topic. Ms. Schlaff and Ms. Reda began their presentation by providing information on the Office for Women's efforts and initiatives with respect to domestic violence. The presentation included statistics, demographics and impacts of domestic violence on a person's psyche. Additionally, they provided some history and efforts about the Westchester County Domestic Violence High Risk Team as well as detail on the types of abuse that exist. They demystified the perception that a partner will not harm children in the home, as there have been several domestic violence homicides of various aged family members. Ms. Princi added a detailed breakdown of the mental health issues that survivors are left with after they successfully leave a violent environment. Proper action steps on how to help someone in this type of situation were shared as well as emphasis being made that these trainings are widely available and provided by the Office for Women to any and all County residents.

Chair Williams Johnson proceeded to conclude the meeting after the overall dialogue was completed on this topic.
